Abstract

The abstract should be written using the LINSTAT 2026 style file in LaTeX. Authors using other text editors may submit their abstracts either as an MS Word document or a plain ASCII file, containing the same information as in this sample.

For references, please follow the formatting style shown in the examples below. References should be listed in alphabetical order. To cite a reference in the text, use the `\cite{}` command (e.g., [2]).

Keywords

Submission of abstract, Reference style, Submission date, How to submit.

Acknowledgements

The author was supported by the project no. 123456.
